

The corporate governance of Tokyo Seimitsu Co., Ltd (the Company) is described below.

I. Policy on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Corporate Governance Philosophy

Tokyo Seimitsu's philosophy is "Growing together with partners and customers by collaborating technology, knowledge and information to create the world's No.1 products." The Group seeks to achieve sustainable growth and an increase of corporate value in a context of rapidly innovating technology and a globalized economy – as reflected in its corporate brand "ACCRETECH". To realize this goal, the Group believes that strong corporate governance is essential to improving corporate value and conducting fair and transparent business activities as a global corporate citizen, and has established the following five (5) core policies for corporate governance.

(*)ACCRETECH is a term coined by the Company, combining ACCRETE, meaning "to grow together," and technology.

<Core Policies>

1. The Board of Directors strives to properly perform its roles and responsibilities to make transparent, fair, timely and committed decisions.
2. The Group respects the rights of shareholders and ensures the equality of shareholders.
3. The Group strives to have constructive dialogue with shareholders on investment policy that considers mid to long-term returns for shareholders.
4. The Group strives to maintain appropriate collaboration with stakeholders other than shareholders.
5. The Group strives to ensure proper information disclosure and transparency.

[Reasons for Not Implementing the Respective Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

UPDATED

The information below is based on the Corporate Governance Code as revised in June 2021 (all principles, including those for the prime market).

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 (latter part) Initiatives on Sustainability]

1. The Company aims to realize a sustainable society by promoting cooperation with all stakeholders based on its corporate philosophy. In the midst of a drastically changing corporate environment, the Company has established the Sustainability Policy and the Sustainability Committee, and is working to resolve issues for the sustainable growth of our company and society.
2. The Company plans to disclose climate change-related information based on the framework of TCFD (Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosure) as part of its sustainability initiatives. Based on the results of these activities, the Company will compile and disclose information on business, strategic, and financial risks and opportunities, risk management status, and related indicators and targets, by March 2022.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] UPDATED

The information below is based on the Corporate Governance Code as revised in June 2021 (all principles, including those for the prime market).

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

1. Policy regarding cross-shareholdings

The Board of Directors shall comprehensively examine whether shares held as cross-holdings are worthwhile based on risk and return from perspective of mid to long-term economic rationality, and qualitative considerations such as purpose of holding and credit status. Shares held as cross-holdings that are not considered worthwhile to be retained, as a result of the examination, shall be reduced in principle. However, if it is determined that holding of such shares will contribute to the improvement of the mid to long-term corporate value, they shall be retained.

As a result, the Company has sold 14 brands of cross-shareholdings (including shares subject to deemed holding) for 7,302 million yen from April 2015 to March 2021.

2. Policy regarding the exercise of voting rights

The Company shall exercise voting rights associated with cross-shareholdings after sufficient consideration of each specific proposal based on concrete criteria.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

1. The Company shall not be engaged in any transactions with Directors and/or major shareholders that may damage the interests of the Company or the common interests of the shareholders
2. When a Director is intending to enter into a transaction with the Company for him/herself or for any third parties, the Director shall obtain prior approval of the Board of Directors according to the rules of the Board of Directors, and report important facts in that transaction at the board meeting. Terms and conditions for the transaction may be determined in the same manner as a transaction with third parties.
3. To identify any transactions involving a conflict of interest by Directors, the Company checks existence of such transaction (excluding compensation) between the Company Group and Directors or their family members within the second degree of kinship.
4. When the Company is intending to enter transactions between the Company and major shareholders or other related parties, then it shall be approved in advance by personnel with authority commensurate with the importance and scale of the transaction in accordance with internal regulations determined by the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Policies and Goals for Ensuring Diversity in the Promotion to Core Human Resources]

1. Policies for ensuring diversity

The Company believes that diverse perspectives and ideas stimulate each other to create new value and achieve synergies that exceed the sum of individual abilities. To this end, we prevent all discriminatory acts on the basis of age, gender, race, religion, national origin, disability, etc., and strive to realize a workplace where diverse human resources can work in safety and health. The Company also strives to create a workplace where diverse human resources can work in a safe and healthy environment, where each employee's individuality is respected, where they can maximize their abilities, and where they can work with a sense of fulfillment.

2. Goals and progress on ensuring diversity

(1) Promotion of women to management positions

The Company believes that it is important to increase the number of women who will play an active role as core human resources in the medium to long term. First of all for that, the Company is working on expanding the recruitment of woman employees and improving the working environment. As of the end of November 2021, the ratio of full-time woman employees was 7.4% and the ratio of woman managers was 1.9%, and the Company are working to achieve our goals of a 20% woman employee recruitment ratio (19.2% for the period from April to November 2021) and a 10% woman employee ratio (7.4% as of the end of November 2021).

(2) Midcareer hires and Promotion of foreign nationals

The Company's midcareer hires have already become an indispensable asset to the Company, and the Company hires and promotes excellent human resources regardless of nationality. Both midcareer hires and foreign nationals have demonstrated their ability to bring diverse perspectives and ideas, and to work closely with overseas stakeholders. The ratio of foreign employees in managerial positions is 1.5%, and the ratio of midcareer hires is 41.3%.

3. Policies for human resource development, internal environment development, and these progresses to ensure diversity

In order to create the world's No. 1 products through WIN-WIN work, the Company believes that each and every one of our employees needs to maximize his or her strengths as a professional human resource, recognize the diverse values of diverse human resources, draw out each other's strengths, and grow together.

In order to support the growth of our employees, the Company provides education, training and other programs, and is working to create a workplace environment where diverse human resources can feel motivated to work.

<Educations and Trainings>

Woman's career design training / e-learning (promotion of diversity)

In addition, to support employees who are raising children or caring for family members, the Company has established a leave system that far exceeds the legal requirements, as well as a long vacation system to promote work-life balance.

Detail of the Company's actions for ensuring diversity is in the Company's website as linked below.

2. Outline of Current System of Corporate Governance Mechanisms such as Business Executions, Audit and Supervision, and of methods of resolving nomination and/or compensation UPDATED

1. Outline of business executions

- (1) The Board of Directors holds regular monthly Board Meetings. At meetings, important matters stipulated by the law, articles of incorporation and regulations related to Boards of Directors are deliberated on and reviewed. The Company provides supplementary documents necessary for deliberation to all directors, in addition, secures deliberation time to make it sufficient.
- (2) In deliberations at the Board of Directors, directors with broad experience in management, technology, sales, etc. and abundant experience in corporate management, technology, intellectual property, legal affairs, and accounting/tax affairs and knowledgeable external corporate directors are able to examine management issues from multiple perspectives.
- (3) To accelerate decision making, the Company delegates substantial authority to internal companies within the scope of duties and authority determined by internal regulations to accelerate decision making. Also, the Company holds executive officers meetings to discuss/share information for effective Company-wide deliberation, and establishes Company-wide committees such as the Risk Management, and Compliance Committees to examine and monitor important issues from multiple angles and make proper decisions.
- (4) The Board of Directors also monitors progress/status of issues which had been deliberated on and resolved to monitor business execution by directors. To assess the effectiveness of the Board, the Company surveys all directors including external corporate directors, and according to the results, the Company seeks to improve company/board relations.

2. Outline of audit and supervision

- (1) The Company has established the Nomination and Compensation Council as an advisory organization for the President and the Board of Directors. The Nomination and Compensation Council is composed of Audit and Supervisory Committee members and external corporate directors (All 5 members are independent directors), and deliberates on such matters as nomination of directors and directors compensation.
- (2) The Company has established an Audit Dept. under the direct management of the President & CEO. The Department manager, upon direct assignment by the President & CEO, carries out appropriate investigations.
- (3) Based on internal audit regulations, the Audit Dept. conducts periodic internal audits. In addition, the Audit Dept. periodically evaluates subjects to be audited, auditing methods, and revises practices when necessary.
- (4) If the Audit Dept. finds any violation of laws, regulations, the articles of corporation or internal rules, or any performance of duties that may cause a loss due to some other reasons at the Company or its subsidiaries, the General Manager of the Audit Dept. immediately notifies the President & CEO and tells employees to implement corrective or improvement actions.
- (5) To ensure effective auditing, the Audit Dept. requires each department to maintain related internal regulations, guidelines and manuals and thoroughly inform all employees of the significance of the Audit Dept. In addition, the Audit Dept. provides guidance to each department for immediate reporting to Audit Dept. if any risk of loss as per these documents has arisen.
- (6) The Management Support Dept. which is the primary support department of affiliates collects information on important issues and serious risks at the subsidiaries to share information between the Parent Company and the subsidiaries and properly perform duties in the interest of both the Parent Company and subsidiaries.
- (7) If the Management Support Dept. finds risks of material loss at a subsidiary, it immediately notifies further information including details of the risk, estimated material loss, to the Board of Directors and related departments.
- (8) The Audit and Supervisory Committee and Audit Dept. exchange sufficient level information among Auditor, Audit department, or equivalent department to notify and/or prevent any kind of irregular function and/or accounting matter related to the Company or subsidiary.
